Letter from 2009 Civic Club President

by Scott Easterly

Blessings and wishes for a Happy New Year to all of the Garden Oaks residents.

I am elected as the 2009 Civic Club President and wanted to share a few reflections as we enter 2009. This will be a year of new leadership in Washington, DC and a few new leaders in our neighborhood including Phil Ramirez who will serve as our new Treasurer. I wish to thank the countless, dedicated volunteers who have served us well in the past, especially outgoing Civic Club officers; James Flowers, President and Jerry Butler, Treasurer.

I have lived in Garden Oaks since the fall of 2005, the fall that brought us Rita and the horrors of Katrina. This fall I experienced Ike, a particularly tough time for Garden Oaks. I still see blue tarps on roofs, stumps and felled trees. But I also see beauty in this neighborhood that makes me proud and has compelled me serve this year in a new way.

During Ike I benefited from the generosity of neighbors I barely knew or did not know at all. I'm sure you had your own set of heroes and heroines or were one yourself. Mine were many; Rob who cut limbs off of the tree in our driveway and helped cut them on felled trees in Gazebo Park, Nicki who fed me and those who helped clear debris to the curb, Rial and Gerilynn who preserved our food in their freezer and lent a fan and clothesline. Who were yours? Perhaps it was the Constables on tireless patrol? We not only had less crime without electricity, alarms or closed windows, we had security in learning our neighbor's names and opening up to others who shared our burdens and frustrations and kindnesses.

I learned that Garden Oaks was not just a place with lots of trees, fewer now than before, but a great neighborhood. Ike took us "Beyond the Gates," borrowing from last year's Home Tour theme. And borrowing from the previous Home Tour theme, I learned that the people are the flowers in the gardens of Garden Oaks. Our diversity in people, architecture and styles of landscaping and parks make this my favorite neighborhood of those that I have ever lived in.

Venture out with me in 2009 to learn more about your neighbors, the Civic Club, GOMO, the Garden Club, Citizens on Patrol, G.O. Kids, G.O. Sisterhood, The Gazette, Beautification, Membership, the parks or Garden Oaks Elementary and its new Labyrinth. Attend the monthly Civic Club meetings and meet some really great neighbors and maybe even win a ham as the January door prize.

Join me in continuing to meet and help or serve one another. Houston and Garden Oaks is at its finest when neighbor is helping neighbor.

Citizens Patrol Program

by Carl Waters, Jr.

Many thanks to the volunteers who gave their time last year to make the Citizens Patrol program a success. Without their time this program would not exist. We could, however, use more volunteers. If your New Year's resolution is to become more active in the Garden Oaks community, our program would appreciate your help. It takes just a few simple steps to become a member. First, you need to contact me by telephone at 713-864-1992, by email at GOCOP77018@AOL.com or through the Garden Oaks web site GardenOaks.org by going to the site and clicking on the get involved link and then click on our program. Once you have signed up you will need to complete a one hour training class and pass a criminal background check conducted by the Houston Police Department. The program is open to all Garden Oaks residents 18 years of age or older.

October Crime Statistics (3)

Burglary (1) 300 block of W. 31st ST on Friday, October 24th at 7:15 am (residence)

Driving While Intoxicated (1)

700 block of W. 34th ST on Saturday, October 18th at 1:40 am (public street)

Through the month of October 58 crimes had been reported on the HPD Website. This compares to 87 crimes during the same time period last year or an approximate 33% reduction in crimes reported by the HPD Website.

Inquires about joining the Citizens Patrol Program or about other community safety issues can be directed to me via neighborhood website GardenOaks.org or to the COP email account at GOCOP77018@AOL.com or by phone at 713-864-1992.

Critter Corner

by Casey and Mau Mau Farris

Happy 2009! Are you a good pet parent? This New Year, take a minute and evaluate your pets' care and resolve to include this list of basics that Mau Mau and I put together. The City mandates that minimum pet care is food, shelter and medical care, but for a truly happy and healthy pet there is a little bit more you should be offering. Doesn't your pet deserve the best?! Our Pet of the Month is the sweetest, and I mean the sweetest, cat in Texas.

Pet of the Month: "Miss. January" is a thirteen year old Tuxedo (black/white fur looks like wearing a tuxedo) cat named Lily Adkins. She lives in Section 1A with her parents Susan and Gary. She was adopted from the Houston SPCA at four months old. When first adopted she had red fur and the vet said that color was due to exposure and malnutrition and that with good health it would darken and it did. Lily is very petite with lots of fur and green eyes. While still frisky and playful, she is also a total love bug and likes to be held – like a baby. When Gary arrives home from work she greets him at the door and climbs up his clothes until she rests on his left shoulder. Susan says she doesn't like the right shoulder it has to be over your heart on the left side. Lily has a sweet tooth and every now and then she likes a taste of strawberry jam or strawberry ice cream or the taste of the milk leftover after cereal. Happy New Year Sweet Lily!

Critters 101: Resolutions for Healthier Pets

Resolution #1 Spay or neuter your pet. By doing so, not only do you not add to the horrible problem of pet overpopulation (five to twelve million animals are euthanized each year in US shelters), but you also decrease the odds of certain health problems.

Resolution #2 Get tags. Hello. Get on the internet or pop into a pet store and make id tags right there and get them on your pet right now. This is the easiest and cheapest way to keep track of your pet. Microchipping is also a great idea.

Resolution #3 Keep your pets on heartworm preventative all year long. Heartworm disease is transmitted by mosquitoes and we have mosquitoes all year long. It is the female mosquito, tiny enough to easily slip through cracks around windows, doors or screens, which bites and transmits the infection so every dog is at risk, indoors or out.

Resolution #4 Get your pet on a good diet. The quality of your pet's diet has impact on his or her health, and once you switch from a supermarket brand to a premium brand, you will see the difference in your pet's coat.

Resolution #5 Keep your pet well groomed. Keep up with brushing as necessary for your breed and don't let it get away from you. Grooming can be an excellent opportunity to bond with your pet. Healthy cats usually do an adequate job keeping themselves clean, but dogs should be bathed every month or two with a good quality pet shampoo.

Resolution #6 Exercise your pet every day. If you have a yard, don't put the dog out to amuse himself, play fetch with him. Take him for walks. If you're out all day, take your dog to doggie daycare or hire a dog walker to exercise him. Not only will these things keep him in shape, but also they'll make him calmer in the house. Likewise, cats need to be exercised. Turn your cats' favorite playthings (ping pong balls, bread bag ties, crumpled paper) into prey by tossing them around and away from your cat. For cats who love to watch birds, tie the toy to a piece of string and make it fly above your cat but let him catch it every so often to keep it fun.

Resolution #7 Stimulate your dog through training. Even if your dog has been through puppy kindergarten and knows basic commands, there is more to be learned. Adult dogs find stimulation through taking advanced classes, many trainers offer classes in areas such as agility, fetching or coming when called. Such classes will benefit your dog by surrounding him with friends, engaging his mind, and strengthening his bond to you.

Resolution #8 Resolve to spend lots of quality time with your pet. Your love and affection will make your pet happier – and thus healthier in the New Year and in many years to follow.

Go Green to Save Green

by Sheila Briones

I believe I have underestimated the breadth and depth of the Green Consumer Movement. I must admit that I've perceived green consumers as upscale idealists with enough discretionary income to buy a hybrid car or any one of the many thousands of high-end organic food products available. Can you blame me for this view considering that we've been bombarded by a celebrity-hyped, consumerist economy-in-overdrive for the last quarter century?

What I've learned is that green consumers are not so upscale. In fact, they are consumers across all income brackets. They make "green" decisions on a daily basis especially now that times are tough with food prices going up and the credit crunch tightening.

They aren't recession-proof. They live responsibly. They live well and live wisely. According to Wendell Berry, an American poet, novelist, essayist, philosopher and Kentucky farmer, real "greenies" are savers, savorers and individuals who care about things.

Greenies shop for durability in this throwaway world. They know about running their appliances during off-peak hours to save money on electricity, where to get their shoes repaired, taking the Metro to work, insulating their homes and buying electronic equipment from a manufacturer with a good take-back program. All these things save money and preserve resources.

It's about living responsibly and taking better stock of what one has and what things truly cost.

Educational Gem Seeks Donors, Underwriters for Community-wide Pancake Breakfast & Silent Auction Fundraiser February 7th

by Diane Pittman

It's become a neighborhood tradition, that Saturday morning in February when volunteer dads and granddads flip thousands of free pancakes. Katz's hot coffee is served to a crowd browsing auction items, eager to help a unique public school program benefiting children from all walks of life.

A call for donors and underwriters is underway to keep the community tradition going as Garden Oaks Elementary School and Friends of Montessori get set to host the 15th Annual Community-wide Pancake Breakfast and Silent Auction, Saturday, February 7, 2009 from 8:00-10:30 a.m.

"This year's theme, 'Ready, Set, Grow!' is all about growth—the growth of our children, our programs, and our community," said Tonya Knauth, co-chair of the event.

"The Pancake Breakfast helps keep the Montessori classrooms thriving at Garden Oaks Elementary," said Knauth. "It's an incredible neighborhood asset that has doubled in size since its inception. In the last three years we successfully opened two new classrooms for ages 3-5, and are looking forward to adding another classroom next year. But, without fundraisers and underwriters, this public school Montessori program would cease to exist."

While HISD provides limited funding to support the program, private revenue raised by parents and community partners makes up the bulk of the program's annual budget. Underwriters are needed to support the free breakfast, and donors are needed for silent auction items, a favorite tradition of local pancake eaters.

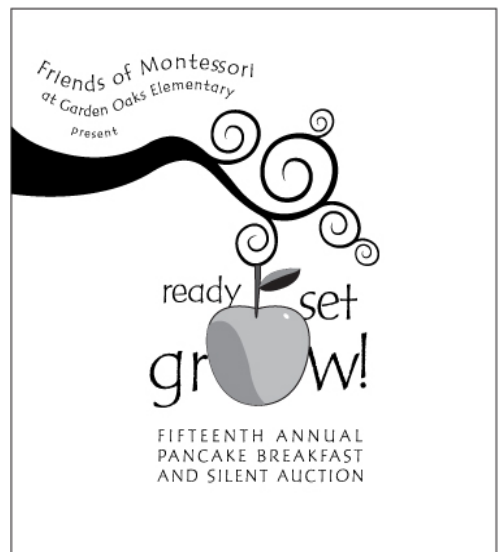

First developed in the early 1900s by Italian educator Maria Montessori for the mentally challenged, the teaching method has proven extremely successful for children of all socioeconomic, learning, and ethnic backgrounds.

Today, students at all four HISD Montessori campuses regularly outscore their peers on standardized tests across all academic subjects, and the program has drawn scores of parents back to the public school system who might otherwise choose private school for their children.

Last year's event raised more than $22,000, despite the fact that the golden brown pancakes, warm syrup, and sausage were free to the community.

To underwrite a portion of the annual breakfast or the program, or to donate auction items, please contact FOM at (713) 320-7294, or email friendsofmontessori@yahoo.com. Montessori program applications for the 2009-2010 school year are now available in the school office. The deadline for applications is January 9th. For more information, call Garden Oaks Elementary School at (713) 696-2930.

Submitted by Becky Blaylock

David Blassingame, Garden Oaks resident, is actively involved in bringing together musicians in an active spirit of helping others. Blassingame, a multi instrumentalist, arranger and singer, recently organized a live performance of the Beatles Sgt. Pepper album to benefit the Musician's Benevolent Society. Sgt. Pepper was performed again to an audience of 4,000, in a free concert for the grand opening of Discover Green. David was enlisted to join Love Street Light Circus, a non profit organization that was created to support children's causes. For the inaugural event, the Beatles White Album was performed live at the Crystal ballroom at the Rice Lofts to benefit Texas Children's Hospital.

Share a photo that captures what we as residents of Garden Oaks see or experience in our neighborhood; children playing, a neighborhood gathering, the rich nature found in GO, anything that provides insight into the things we enjoy about our lives in this neighborhood.

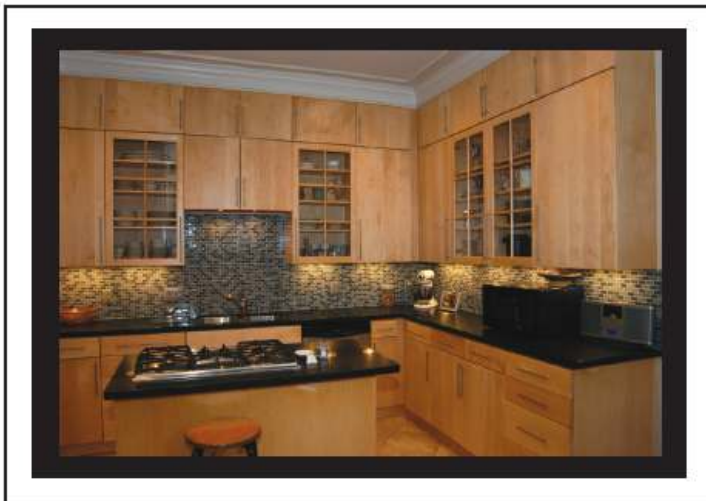

Send your photo submission to gazette@gardenoaks.org. Include your name and a brief description of the image for consideration as photo of the month and we'll do our best to work with whatever you send us!

Dave Blassingame, has plans for more live musical charity shows in 2009.

G.O. Kids News

by Tonya Knauth

Moms' Night Out for January will be Thursday, January 8th, 7pm, at Thai Spice on 19th St. BYOB!

January's Family Potluck will be held on January 24th at the Lozano home, 819 W. 42nd, from 4-7 pm. Bring the kids and a dish! Drinks will be provided.

Our neighborhood abounds with joyful new additions these days! We know how overwhelming a new baby can be, so we provide several meals for the family during those stressful first weeks. If you are expecting or know a neighbor who is, please let us know!

Please join us for our standing playgroups on Mondays and Fridays at 10:00 a.m. at Candlelight Park.

GO Kids was started by a group of parents who want to build a family-friendly neighborhood where children and parents know each other and grow together -- all Garden Oaks families are welcome! Aren't on the GO Kids list serve? Want more information about GO Kids? Contact Tonya Knauth at (713) 628-8243, or tknauth@comcast.net.
