PRESIDENT'S LETTER by Scott Easterly

arden Oaks has been an extra busy Gplace this past month. Several new coalitions have formed; it sounds like a Reality TV program. Many are looking for accurate and reliable information concerning our SPARK Park and its possible fencing and access. Plan to attend the upcoming Civic Club meeting June 2 at 7:00 p.m. for updates and a chance to ask questions. On hand will be Ms. Pollock, Principal at GOES, Ms. Tamez, HISD Central Region Superintendent, and members of the newly formed SPARK Park Committee.

I am glad to so many residents have become actively involved in our community. At times it seems that just a small group of people volunteer their time to make Garden Oaks the enjoyable community that most of us love. As President of the Civic Club and a more than three year volunteer for upkeep and improvement to Gazebo Park, I know how much we all benefit from the sacrifices made by those contributing time and energy. continued on page 2

CIVIC CLUB CONSTABLE IN DANGER OF CANCELLATION DUE TO FUNDS SHORTAGE. SUPPORT NEEDED NOW!

As your Treasurer it is my duty to inform the community that the program for the Constable funded by the Civic Club is running low on funds. As reported at the May meeting, the balance in the constable fund on April 30 was $12,849.19. That is sufficient to make our payment for this month and next, since our payment is $5,468. This means that unless we receive more funds, we will only be able to fund the daytime deputy through the month of July - GOMO funds two officers on patrol in the evening and at night. I would encourage anyone who has not yet made their contribution to do so sooner rather than later.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Home Tour 2010 now has a Dream Team of Co-Chairs: Sue Schmidt, 2006 Home Tour Chair, and Dian Austin, Home Tour Command Center past Chair in 2006, 2008 and who knows which other years and committees. I am now so excited about the leadership and talent that these women will bring to us. Although the Home Tour isn't until 2010, as Sue said, "let the fun now begin!" While the date and theme have not been determined you don't have to wait to volunteer; this event takes months of planning to ensure its success. Contact them now to learn about ways you can help; Sue Schmidt at sueschmidt1@comcast.net, Dian Austin at FallingwaterT@yahoo.com.

Interested in SPARK PARK? Consider volunteering to keep it clean and safe for all to enjoy. And remember we are blessed with seven neighborhood parks, all that are here to be enjoyed and all in need of volunteers for care and improvement.

Concerned about SAFETY? Contribute to our Constable Program. The daytime Constable is paid for by contributions of neighbors and is in need of money to continue the patrols past July. Don't have any money, and I mean ANY money to contribute? Then join the Citizens Patrol; it only requires two hours of free HPD training and a minimum of one hour of time per month plus a little gas.

All neighbors are invited to all Civic Club meetings. Remember only those that pay annual membership dues are members and allowed to vote (one vote per household).

EVERY RESIDENT benefits from the donations and time of relatively few in our neighborhood. Are you contributing to the neighborhood or just enjoying it? Join your neighbors in membership and commitment to the betterment of Garden Oaks.

NIGHT COURT 2009

by Tim Weltin

Once upon a time, there was an alllawyer theatre company staging an original musical comedy production annually. While that sounds like it would be a disaster, it actually turns out to be pretty entertaining. Granted, I am a biased source of information being a co-writer, co-producer and performer in the show, but we did move to a larger theater last year and experienced a 30-percent single-year growth in our audience, so there is some objective evidence that it's a spectacle worth attending. The project is called "Night Court" and more than 70 attorneys and judges volunteer their time to participate each year. Proceeds benefit charity.

For this year's production, classic characters come to life for Night Court 2009: Legal Fairy Tales. The show takes the stage for five performances June 10 -13 at the Wortham Center. Written by lawyers and performed by lawyers with an orchestra and crew full of lawyers, Night Court provides unique escapist entertainment with proceeds benefiting local charities, including the Houston Bar Foundation. Last year's performances yielded $86,000 which was donated to worthy causes. It's a show for anyone who likes to laugh. The production parodies pop culture, current events, politics and fairy tale entertainment, as well as the legal profession. It's a full-blown stage show with a fluid plotline, elaborate sets, colorful costumes and quirky production numbers.

This is my tenth anniversary with the project. Back in the day, we performed at Rice University and then moved to the Hobby Center when it opened. When we started selling out the community theater there, we added additional shows. After building to a five-show run which was selling out, we doubled our seating capacity by moving to the Wortham Center last year. We now have plenty of room to grow, which is where you come in. You're invited to attend and spread the word to your friends and co-workers about the all-lawyer "parody for charity." I am available to answer questions about Night Court at timweltin@mycase.info.

From the Three Little Pigs to the Three Bears, from Hansel and Gretel to Alice and the Mad Hatter, fairy tale characters including Snow White, Red Riding Hood, Pinocchio, Little Bo Peep and Prince Charming weave a wacky storyline as they sing, dance and joke their way through a particularly fractured fairy tale. The cast includes District Clerk Loren Jackson as Hansel and County Commissioner Sylvia Garcia as the Blue Fairy. It's never-before and never-again entertainment since every show is retired after its run.

Evening performances, Wednesday-Saturday, begin at 8:00 p.m. and the Saturday matinee is at 2:00 p.m. Special promotions include "Fairy Tale Mug Night" for the Wednesday, June 10 preview performance, where audience members will receive a free keepsake mug. The Thursday, June 11 performance features "Buy Three, Get One Free" ticketing and the Saturday afternoon show is a "Dress-Like-a-Fairy-Tale-Character" matinee. Seats are $29 for the Thursday, Friday and Saturday shows, $21 for the Wednesday preview performance and $15 for the Saturday matinee. Get your tickets today at www.HBA.org and Live Happily Ever After.*

SPARK PARK FENCE

At the recent May 13 Garden Oaks Elementary Shared Decision Making Committee (SDMC) meeting, the following statements were requested of Ms Lindsay Pollock, principal, and Dr Adriana Tamez, HISD Central Region Superintendent for clarity on items of concern that have arisen related to the SPARK Park fence discussion. In addition, a SPARK Park committee was formed at the May Civic Meeting. All concerned residents are encouraged to attend the June 2 civic club meeting to get the latest and most accurate information regarding SPARK Park enhancements.

Statements from HISD

I have always been impressed and pleased with the partnership between Garden Oaks Elementary School and its families and neighbors. Thus, it is good to see the Garden Oaks community coming together, once again, — the school faculty and staff, the parents and community residents — to collaborate in order to consider all perspectives and develop ongoing practices and plans that will benefit the school and the larger community. HISD, above all, is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy environment for our students. While this remains the district's primary focus, we expect to be able to do so while also maintaining the productive partnership between school and larger community. The Spark Park is an important outdoor space for both the school and the community, and we want to ensure that it remains a model of the good things that can happen when a school and community work together. There are no immediate plans to erect a fence surrounding the SPARK Park; however, a SPARK Park committee is being organized by the Garden Oaks ES principal, Lindsey Pollock, which is a collaborative effort of the school's SDMC, the Garden Oaks Civic Club and other community members. This committee will have as its first focus the feasibility of a fence surrounding the SPARK Park; however, we look forward to additional opportunities where this committee might serve to build the already strong partnership between the school and the neighborhood community.

Adriana Tamez, HISD Central Region Superintendent

Among my top priorities as principal is creating and maintaining a safe, secure and healthy environment for all the students. I feel very fortunate to be at Garden Oaks ES, where there is great support from the community, and I want to work to build on this wonderful strength. It is very important to me and our school that I receive input from all Garden Oaks stakeholders before we made decisions that will affect not only the school but the neighborhood, as well. To that end, I look forward to continued collaboration with our Garden Oaks community to ensure that our shared interest in our Spark Park provides for a safe and secure environment for everyone.

Lindsey Pollock, Principal, Garden Oaks Elementary

Parents remember to bring your children to the Civic Club meetings for fun activities and child care with Hannah Stanchi.

GAZETTE BLOCK CAPTAINS OF THE MONTH

by Dian Austin

Gazette Block Captains of the Month for June are Bryan and Paula Motzel. Bryan, Paula and their son, Everett, live in the 900 block of W. 42nd. They have delivered Gazettes to their block for about a year and a half.

Bryan and Paula moved into Garden Oaks in 2005. They were actually looking at homes in the Heights, accidentally wandered into our great neighborhood, and liked what they saw. They were particularly awed by all the trees and the sense of being away from the city's hubbub, but yet in such an accessible location. Bryan and Paula are both civic club members and constable program supporters.

In recognition of their continued diligence in Gazette delivery, Bryan and Paula receive a $25 Starbucks gift card, courtesy of OD's Printing (Oscar Ochoa). Thanks Bryan and Paula for all your help!

If anyone else wants to join the Great Gazette Delivery Team, please call Dian at 713.691.6505. If you'd like to nominate your Block Captain for the monthly prize, call or email me at fallingwatert@yahoo.com. (And if you never ever get your Gazette on time, please let me know too!)

GARDEN OAKS CIVIC CLUB MEETING MINUTES

May 5, 2009

by Cindy Bartos, Secretary

Welcome:

President Scott Easterly called the meeting to order at 7:10 p.m. A motion was made and seconded to accept the April minutes as they appeared in the Gazette.

Treasurer's Report:

Phil Ramirez presented the current income and expense report for the Civic Club and had detailed copies available at the meeting. Phil encouraged more residents to become members of the Constable Program.

Standing Committee Reports:

- Constable Program: Terry Jeanes will be sending emails to the distribution list asking members to share information and forms with neighbors who are not members of the Constable Program. The forms are also available on the Garden Oaks website: www. gardenoaks.org under the tab "involvement" then follow the link through "Civic Club." Officer C.J. Mangano presented details of recent crimes reported and urged residents to call if they see suspicious activity.
- Beautification: Brenda de Alba reported on the work completed at the Randall Berm Park and the weeding with addition of mulch to Garden Oaks Blvd. The Gazebo Park is next on the list for spring maintenance.
- Gazette: Jessica Jarvis asked that residents patronize the advertisers and to let them know you saw their ad in the Gazette.
- Garden Oaks Citizen's Patrol Program: Carl Waters urged more residents to become volunteers. He reported the neighborhood had five crimes reported in the month of April; 1 more than last April. The number of reported crimes to date is 14, one more than reported at this time in 2008.

- Garden Oaks.org website: No report
- Membership: No report

Garden Oaks Maintenance Organization (GOMO): The monthly meeting was held immediately following the civic club meeting.
Garden Club: no report

President Scott Easterly recognized and welcomed new attendees and visitors to the meeting.

Speaker and Program: Terry Jeanes introduced Garden Oaks resident and author of the book 100+ Activities for Houston Kids, Megan Salch. Megan focused her presentation on bringing out the inner child in all of us as she described several suggested activities for adults as well as for children. She had her book available for purchase at the meeting, which can also be purchased on line or at area bookstores.

Old Business:

President Scott Easterly reminded us of the Old Fashioned Picnic that will be taking place 1:00p.m. Sunday, May 17 at the SPARK Park.

Wine Walk: Saturday, October 10, 2009. Currently sold out, but contact Dian Austin to get on the waiting list.

W.G. Eickenhorst reported on his continuing efforts to have the ditches cleaned out in his area. Representatives from the Flood Control District told him they are in the process of obtaining written permission from the railroad to work around their property.

Gazette distribution: Phil Ramirez is in the process of surveying the neighborhood on the idea of having the Garden Oaks Gazette change from a delivered hard copy to being available online. Contact Phil via email treasurer@gardenoaks.org with your opinions both pro and con concerning whether we will continue to print the newsletter for all residents.

Quiet Zone: President Easterly urged residents to contact the Mayor, Councilwoman Toni Lawrence's office and the at-large Council members to voice your opinion on this issue.

New business: Lindsey Pollock, principal of Garden Oaks Elementary School presented the issue of putting a fence around the SPARK park. She expressed her concerns for the safety of the students and the desire to establish a perimeter that would define the boundaries for students and potential visitors to the park during school hours. She reported on having to frequently ask visitors to leave the property while school was in session. She also reminded attendees of the school's policy of asking visitors to sign in at the front office before using the park.

The discussion from residents and teachers in attendance included: opposition to a fence, the need for safety of the students, questioning the need for extra security, the suggestion that the Constables increase their patrol around the park, the suggestion that a plan for a fence - if needed in the future- may have been included in the original SPARK park plans, and the reminder of the donations (monetary, time and physical labor) by the community in the development of the park and the school's campus. A variety of fence scenarios were suggested: locked gates (unlocked after school hours), partial fencing that would define a perimeter but would still have large openings, rolling fences and short fencing. Ms. Pollock requested that a committee be formed to determine the type and location of the fence. Residents were urged to contact Ms. Pollock if interested in being on the committee.

Meeting adjourned: 8:31 pm Attendance: 47

Please support our advertisers who in turn support our neighborhood.
Tell them you saw their ad in the Gazette!

CONSTABLE PROGRAM

DANGER: SHORTAGE OF FUNDS FOR DAYTIME DEPUTY

by Terry Jeanes & Susan Love – Saranie

The civic club contract currently has funds to keep our daytime deputy on the streets only to the end of July. Then he will be gone. Keeping him here will depend on you and your neighbors.

Please use the constable supporter form in this issue. If you are not a member please join immediately. If you are a member, encourage your neighbors to sign up. Garden Oaks crime stats have been declining since the constable program's existence and the increased coverage of our deputies. For the safety of the community please join us today. #### CITIZENS PATROL PROGRAM by Carl Waters, Jr.

Soon after the deadline for the May Gazette, a neighbor called about solicitors in the 1300 block of Sue Barnett. She reported several persons were working the area claiming to represent a home security company. The neighbor stated she called the Constable and was told by him the men were not legitimate. Please be careful about doing business with door to door solicitors. If they are legitimate they should have a license from the City of Houston.

Attention all motorists - school is out. Watch out for children at play. Through the first quarter of the year, crime statistics are very similar to what was reported last year. For 2009 we have 14 crimes reported on the HPD website as compared to 13 through March of 2008.

by Sarah McGee Heath

It's hard to believe summer is upon us again! GO Kids has many fun activities planned for these hot months!

Moms' Night Out for June will be Thursday, June 4 at 7p.m. at Chatters Cafe & Bistro, 140 South Heights Blvd. Hope to see you there!

Please join us for our all ages GO Playgroup on Mondays & Fridays from 10a.m. to12p.m. I am happy to announce that we will be moving our playgroup to the SPARK Park for the summer. Please take a moment to sign in at GOES office. Thanks!

The news is reporting there is a Hurricane Ike "baby boom" happening these days! Do you know an overwhelmed new parent?! Are you one of those sleep deprived parents yourself?! Take heart because help is on the way! We are happy to provide new families with several meals during those stressful first few weeks. If you are expecting or know a neighbor who is, please let our GO Dinner Drop coordinator, Amber Berend, know by contacting her at amber.berend@yahoo.com. Also, be sure to sign up and help deliver food to a family in need; it's a great way to meet your neighbors and see some cute little babies!

Calling all kids! Be sure to get your bikes, trikes, wagons, even strollers decorated and ready for the GO Red, White & Blue Parade on July 4th. Or bring along a picnic blanket and find a spot to watch the festivities along the parade route. You won't want to miss this charming tradition!

Lastly, I wanted to take a moment to again thank Tonya Knauth for starting this wonderful group three years ago. I am thrilled to be a part of GO Kids and look forward to helping it grow. Be sure to tell your friends and neighbors and stay tuned for upcoming events and new activities. And thanks to everyone for their kind words and encouragement during this transition!

GO Kids was started by a group of parents who wanted to build a family-friendly neighborhood where children and parents knew each other and grew together -- all Garden Oaks families are welcome! #### CIVIC CLUB OFFICER HIGHLIGHT

Secretary Cindy Bartos by Jessica Jarvis

The Garden Oaks civic club is served by a number of very talented and dedicated individuals willing to volunteer their time and talents to our neighborhood. One of those individuals is Cindy Bartos who has served as secretary for the last three years. She and her husband John, an attorney, moved to Houston from Pittsburgh, PA in 1976. They purchased their first house in the 900 block of Althea in 1982. 1983 brought a spring tornado to Garden Oaks and in August 1983 they endured Hurricane Alicia. It was quite a welcome to the neighborhood! In 2002 they moved a few streets north to their current home on Azalea.

Over her years in Garden Oaks, Cindy has participated in civic club meetings and delivered the Gazette both on Althea and currently on Azalea. For twelve years she was the Democratic Precinct Chair in Pct. 245 that voted at the Square Dance Center on Golf.

Cindy retired last year after 32 years of teaching elementary school in Aldine ISD - most recently 6th grade math. Cindy and John's best friend is their Golden Retriever, Sonny Boy. They are involved in a number of membership organizations such as The Galveston Bay Foundation, Houston Audubon Society and the Houston Canoe Club.

Cindy and John spend a part of their free time paddling somewhere - either in the Bay area with their sea kayaks or canoeing one of the many waterways within and hour or two's drive from Houston. They have competed and placed in FreeStyle canoeing competitions which apply smooth, efficient paddling to music. They sometimes combine paddling with their other interests in birding and photography.

Before they moved here a friend of Cindy's living in Garden Oaks described it to her as "living in a 'Leave it to Beaver' type place where neighbors talk to each other and kids ride bikes to visit their friends," she said. "That was 28 years ago and I think it's still true. Old trees, unique houses, friendly and helpful neighbors - all reasons we've made Garden Oaks our home."

Thank you Cindy, for the time and talents you bring to our neighborhood as a valued volunteer!

CRITTER CORNER

by Casey and Mau Mau Farris

Happy June! Summer and hot weather are here. This month we talk about whether or not to cut or shave your dog's fur and our Pets of the Month are a pair of Old English Sheepdogs who know all about haircuts.

Critters 101: Summer Shaving

When summer comes, lots of folks want to have their dogs shaved to help them stay cooler. Expert recommendations vary on the topic of whether to clip a dog's coat; however, the ASPCA suggests for a double-coated dog like a Chow, trimming may help, but don't shave. Leave at least one inch to provide insulation and protection from sunburn. Long-haired dogs with a single coat like Border Collies should not be clipped as their coats may not be dense enough to protect them from the sun when short.

Other Summer Reminders:

It is too hot for a pet to be left in the car for any length of time, even for a couple of minutes, so never leave your pets unattended in the car. If the outside temperature is 93 degrees, the temperature inside your car can soar to 125 degrees in 20 minutes and to 140 degrees in 40 minutes.

If you jog with your dog, do so in early morning or late evening and take water along. If it is over 85 degrees the dogs cannot cool themselves fast enough.

If your dog is outside, put a fan out there with him. It will help cool him and keep the mosquitoes away.

Keep water bowls clean and full of fresh water. A slice of cold melon can cool and hydrate a hot dog.

Pet of the Month:

"Messrs. June" are a dynamic duo of Old English Sheepdogs. George (4) and Truman (10) live in Section V with their parents Tracy and Alan Harbert. Alan shaves their fur every four months and thinks it keeps them cooler but it grows out very quickly. Both dogs came from the same breeder in Magnolia, TX. This breed is very intelligent, social and adaptable. Something happened when Truman was a puppy and he hates the backyard and refuses to go out there. We think he got bitten by some ants or something. These guys prefer the air conditioning anyway. In fact, they like to hang out on the couch and watch TV. They especially like the commercials. When the flea collar ad comes on with the little puppy singing, "There ain't no bugs on me," George will wake from a deep sleep and howl. Alan says they have never had a flea in their lives but do like the song. George has a clownish energy and loves to aggravate Truman just like a typical little brother. Both boys will do anything for an lams Weight Control cookie. Alan says he could probably get them to mow the lawn for a cookie. At this house the dogs are funny and the people are funnier. Here's to the Harberts – always keeping their cool!

THE RECORDING ACADEMY TEXAS CHAPTER BRINGS AUTHORS OF RECORDING THE BEATLES TO TEXAS

by Eric Jarvis

Every summer, the Texas Chapter of The Recording Academy (GRAMMYs) holds its annual P & E Tour in several cities across Texas. The P & E Tour is a series of events, put together by the Texas Chapter's Producers & Engineers Committee, focused on the production and engineering process of making records. Each event brings together music professionals and members of The Recording Academy from across the state to participate in panel discussions, presentations and Q-&-A sessions with luminaries, pioneers, innovators, entrepreneurs, manufacturers and others in the pro-audio field.

Until this year, the P & E Tour held events in three cities: Austin, Dallas and Houston, but this year is adding San Antonio to its lineup. Last year's Houston event provided a rare behind-the-scenes look inside the world-famous production facilities of Houston's Lakewood Church. This indepth tour included a live performance by the Lakewood Orchestra (recorded and made available for hands-on manipulation of the live-sound and demonstration of the production process and infrastructure), a tour of the entire production facility and an intimate Q-&-A session with the awardwinning production staff and artists in residence, including Israel Houghton.

This year, on Saturday, July 11, the Houston event promises to be one of the most exciting and interesting ever.

As reported by Dan Workman, owner of Houston's legendary SugarHill Studios, "The Texas Chapter of The Recording Academy is exceptionally proud to present Brian Kehew and Kevin Ryan, co-authors of Recording the Beatles, in a moderated discussion about their journey in writing what has become the definitive work on how the Beatles recorded their hit records."

Recording the Beatles is the result of a ten-year effort by Ryan and Kehew and is renowned as one of the most detailed and meticulously researched books ever published regarding the recording processes, facilities, personnel, equipment and facilities used in recording the legendary rock band's catalogue of albums.

The authors gained unprecedented access to the world-famous EMI Abbey Road Studios and personnel who were personally involved in making some of the most famous and popular recordings of our time. The book covers everything from blueprints, to microphones, techniques and more. The book has become a must-have for the library of anyone in the recording or music business, as well as Beatle fans and aficionados.

A more detailed synopsis of the book and information about the authors can be found at www.recordingthebeatles.com.

The Recording Academy, the Texas

Chapter and the Producers & Engineers Committee are honored and excited to be able to present this rare opportunity to members of The Recording Academy, as well as members of the public at large for what will be a reasonable fee. (Discounts apply for members and there is usually a Recording Academy membership option for qualifying nonmembers with the attendance fee of one event, which may be offered again this year.)

The venue for this event is as yet undetermined, but updates and additional information, such as location, exact times, pricing (member and non-member) may be found at www.grammy.com or contact me for more information at eric@crushpad.com.

On behalf of the Texas Chapter of the Recording Academy and the Producers & Engineers Committee, I cordially invite you to attend and enjoy what is guaranteed to be an incredibly interesting look into the world of recording and the Beatles' many hit records.

NATIVE BEAUTY

by Mark Saranie

A month or so after lke, odd things in the vegetable kingdom seemed to be going on in our yard. The pecan, which was on its way to dormancy, began growing new foliage; specimens that had completed their blooming cycles months prior were either coming up again or putting on a few buds. Was this an act of survival?

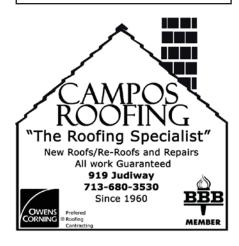

This spring, plants I thought long gone from my beds are making an appearance, and with vigor. A native beauty, though, that I had not noticed in other yards in past years but onlt in my own, was coming out with a vengeance in some neighbors' yards and just a smattering in others. I had long wondered what the bloom was until I found it in Wildflowers of Texas by Geyata Ajilvsgi.

The wildflower in question is Herbertia, Herbertia lahue subsp. Caerulea. Iris Family (Iridaceae). Ajilvsgi notes that Herbertia is endemic to the eastern and southern portion of Texas but is usually abundant where found, forming large areas of almost solid blue. This family is named for the Greek goddess Iris, the messenger of Juno, who used the rainbow as her bridge between heaven and earth. It has been long misidentified in some of the literature as Alophia drummondii. Further information dispensed by Ajilvsgi follows.

Bloom Period: March-May Description: Upright, delicate, smooth perennial to 1 ft. (3 dm) from deep, globelike bulb. Flower to 2 in. (5 cm) across: segments 6: outer 3 segments petallike, broad, wide-spreading, pale to dark blue or lavender, the basal area heavily spotted with violet outlined with purple; inner 3 segments much smaller, blackish violet in basal portion, violet near tip. Flowers solitary or 2 to 3 at tip of leafless stem, emerging from a broad, sheathing, leaflike bract. Leaves to 12 in. (3dm) long alternate, mostly basal, narrow and grasslike, folded together for most of length. Habitat: Sandy or clayey soils of prairies, meadows, grasslands, and other open areas. In NE, SE, SC, CT, ST.

No kidding about the "deep" part with regards to the bulb. In the past I have attempted digging up the bulb with no success. Just this year, however, I managed to secure six by using a dandelion digging tool. I nearly pushed the entire tool into the earth all around the plant. I failed many times. The six I have are in a long pot. Hopefully they will bloom again next season. The sad thing about Herbertia is that since it grows in our lawns and looks like grass, when the bloom opens in the morning many times it is removed by the mower if it is that day of the week. As a solution, mow late in the afternoon; by then this native beauty has folded up her petals and gone to sleep.
