President's Message

The bylaws of the Civic Club schedule the election of officers in November each year. Those officers will serve for the next calendar year. In order to get everything done right and on time, names need to be placed in nomination by the October meeting. That way, we can list the victims in the Gazette in time for the November election. It looks as though we will need a full slate of nominees this year:

President,
Treasurer,
Secretary,

Vice-President/Gazette Editor
Vice-President Membership.

That totals up to FIVE people. Five dynamic, enthusiastic, good-humored residents of Garden Oaks. We will try to put together a Nominating Committee by the September meeting, so please attend on September 7 (as always, the first Tuesday of the month), and put your name down as a candidate.

What will 1994 have in store for those intrepid souls who will steer the ship of state? I don't know about the ship of state, but for Garden Oaks, some likely topics of continuing interest will be zoning, traffic flow, Garden Oaks Elementary (sidewalks, curriculum, volunteer support), sound barriers along I-610, the Whataburger issue, and neighborhood crime. Then there are the regular concerns: inactive committees, beefing up Citizens on Patrol, revitalizing recycling, increasing membership, and managing to show up on Tuesday nights twelve times during the year. I guess it helps if you know how to run a meeting if you are president (some surely debate my skill!!!), how to balance a checkbook if you are treasurer, how to take notes if you are secretary and how to type if you are Gazette editor. All in all, not too tough to do. Come on and give it a try.

One other, very short topic for this issue. School is back in session. Remember to watch for children on their way to and from school and getting on and off school buses. And please slow down for school zones. It might add one minute to your travel time. That isn't asking too much of you, is it? Thanks!

See you at the Civic Club meeting, Tuesday, September 7 at Garden Oaks Baptist Church. Remember babysitting is available for only a $1.00.

Paul Bick

Editor's Note

Okay! We're getting down to the wire! If you have any pictures, anecdotes, etc. to share with the rest of us about your time in Garden Oaks, now is the time to come forward. Don't be shy. It is anticipated that the October issue will be the "retrospective" issue. But, unless we get more information, pictures, stories (you can exaggerate if you need to) from all of you timid souls, I guess I'm just going to have to devote the entire issue to stories about my street, my neighbors and pictures of my dogs. Surely, there are other folks out there who have something to add. Please contact the editor with any information.

On another note, the Montessori project is very exciting. I've had an opportunity to work with the folks trying very hard to get this program going. This program can mean so much to Garden Oaks Elementary and the entire community. No, I'm not a parent, you didn't miss anything. However, I am a taxpayer and a resident with a true interest in what's best for our community and its children. I urge you all to stay informed about this project and give it your support.

Town Hall Meeting September 30th

The next District A Town Hall Meeting is September 30 at Scarborough High School. The topic will be Deed Restrictions. City attorneys will be the special guests to answer questions concerning the vehicles to protect our neighborhoods.

Did You Hear.....

The Bijaks, the Mitchells, the Vorhees, and the Mareks (all of Section 5) and the Larsons (formerly of Section 5) enjoyed an exciting week in New Braunsfel in July. All 19 of them rode the rapids in the Comal River, spent the day at Schlitterbaum, and swam, swam, swam. If you see anyone in Garden Oaks growing gills, you'll know why!

We regret to see the Howies leaving Section 5 and moving to Section 2 on Garden Oaks Boulevard, but at least we can be thankful that they haven't left Garden Oaks. Congratulations on your new house! Apollo Street will miss you Don, Lisa and Katherine.

Please welcome Guy and Julie Edwards who moved into the Howie's house. Welcome to the Garden Oaks community.

Mrs. Garnett Phillips, Section 1 has been doing some landscaping! The yard looks great. Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Hale 700 and 800 block of W32nd must be competing for yard of the century. They are an inspiration to us all.

Fluffing Fido

Did you know that unlike hairdressers, pet groomers in most states do not have licensing requirements? Here are some tips for evaluating a groomer:

See if the shop is clean.

Talk to the groomer, not just the front-desk person, to judge animal rapport.

Give the groomer any special instructions you want carried out.

Evaluate your pet's demeanor when you pick it up.

If your dog is cowering or exhibiting any form of fear, needless to say, that is not a good sign.

Cringing signals that your pet may have been mistreated, through brutality or tranquilizers. No groomer should use a prescription without your consent. Your pet may be tired after a grooming session, but it should not sleep excessively or lose the use of its faculties.

And, if you have questions about Fluffy and Fido and their care, Ralston Purina and Iams Company offer helpful tips on everything from how to prepare your home for a new pet to how to train a dog and deal with hair balls. To get cat brochures from Purina Cat Chow or ask questions about felines, call their hotline: 1-800-CAT CARE. For a Purina Dog Chow booklet write: Brochure Offer, Dept. BHG, P.O. Box 15513, Mascoutah, IL 62224. You can also request pamphlets from Iams Pet Nutrition Center, Dept. BHG, P.O. Box 1475, Dayton, OH 45414; 1-800-525-4267, ext. 44.

Women's Running Club

All women 34 and older are welcome to join a tired worn-out group of women seeking to rediscover the bodies they enjoyed in their youth. Need not have prior running experience to join, however you must show signs of cellulite setting in or gravity taking over. Beginning September 8th we will be meeting at the SPARK Park MWF at 9:00 am.

Neighborhood Views

The August Gazette included an article about a family whose pet cat was killed by two dogs. It seems this problem of large dogs killing cats is getting out of hand in our neighborhood. My child's pet, along with five other cats on our street have been killed at night by free running dogs. All of this has occurred in the last 6 weeks, the latest was on August 10.

We had this cat autopsied to rule out poison. The cause of death was internal injury by bites from a large animal. This is not only a threat to small animals, but children as well. If you are a dog owner, please be responsible.

Editor's Note: Dog AND cat owners should both be responsible. The evidence as it stands now indicates that there are animals roaming the neighborhood that PROBABLY do not belong to our residents. If you have questions about any animals that are roaming loose you should contact the Harris County Animal Control Department at 999-3191.

The Gazette has had calls from several dog owners and residents who do not own any animals about cats that roam loose. The general complaints about cats are that they tear up flower beds and use them for litter boxes and that they tend to lodge themselves under houses (other than their owners) carrying on at night.

There is a general consensus among vets that inside cats live a much longer life than outside cats. Please everyone be responsible.

Sore Knees? Garden Kneelers are the answer. Contact the Garden Club to purchase your very own kneeler for only $5.00. Don't let your knees suffer another day!

Neighborhood Protection Teams

Neighborhood Protection Teams grew out of efforts by citizens to get rid of dangerous buildings, overgrown weeds, trash and other problems in their neighborhoods. Each team has at least four inspectors to help protect our neighborhoods from nuisances.

The Team split the city by zip codes to work closely with people in one area to help keep a community safe and clean. Because a community has one team, your team can get to know you, and your area's problems.

Teams regularly check for problems in your area. They hold street-by-street sweeps, and respond to your phone calls. IF YOU CALL, IT IS IMPORTANT TO GIVE THE OPERATOR THE CORRECT ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY. Because some violations may be hazardous to residents' health, such as disease-carrying rats, mosquitos and flies, your team watches very carefully to make sure these problems are fixed quickly.

A property owner is given ten days to fix a problem when a violation is identified. City Marshals work with your team to help enforce property laws by writing tickets, but only after the ten day period. When a ticket is written, fines start at $250 and can go up to $2,500 per violation.

You can reach the Neighborhood Protection Hotline 24 hours a day at 525-2525.

Garden Oaks generally does not have the type of problems that get Neighborhood Protection's attention. However, it is nice to know that the City is standing behind the integrity of its neighborhoods.

Montessori Education at Garden Oaks Elementary

We are fortunate to have Garden Oaks Elementary as our neighborhood school. It is a lovely school on a large, peaceful campus. The principal, Ms. Jeannie Daniels, heads a dedicated, talented staff of teachers, aids and support personnel. Garden Oaks already has successful programs like SITES & special education classes in addition to successful mainstream education. Why add any new programs?

A group of Garden Oaks parents would like a Montessori classroom added to Garden Oaks Elementary. These parents have had positive experiences with Montessori preschool programs and have read studies about the tremendous successes of elementary level Montessori programs in both private and public schools. There are several good reasons for adding a Montessori classroom to the "educational menu" offered at Garden Oaks Elementary.

First, having a variety of educational programs increases the likelihood that the school will offer children a program which fits their unique needs. Second, studies show that parent involvement is one of the essential ingredients for children to do well in school. Offering a Montessori classroom at Garden Oaks would respond to the interests and needs of a large number of neighborhood parents and children increasing parent involvement in our neighborhood public school. Third, as the trend in education focuses more and more on "developmentally appropriate" education, Dr. Maria Montessori's theory and approach to learning has become more widespread in both private and public schools across the nation because this method is, by design,

"developmentally appropriate".

What is meant by "developmentally appropriate" and why is it important for children to be in that kind of environment? "Developmentally appropriate" means that educational materials and activities are tailored to fit each child's individual talents and needs. Each child's unique way of learning and personal style are considered when setting goals and planning educational activities. Traditional education has tended to focus most on acquiring factual information for high achievement scores. Children typically had to adapt themselves to the subject matter rather than having the sequence of subject matter fit the individual child. (Now you are 8 years old. It's time to learn multiplication tables).

Children are qualitatively different from adults in the ways they learn and think about the world. The Montessori method was developed from watching and observing children. These observations included not just a child's intellectual needs, but also a child's psychological, social and emotional needs at each phase of a child's development. Learning activities and materials were designed based on these observations of children. A "developmentally appropriate" learning environment is also critical for children to feel successful and enjoy learning. We all know or have heard about bright children who cannot "get at" their potential in a traditional classroom structure. For example, they may be very good in some areas but become generally discouraged because they are not as advanced in others. Their lack of success robs them of motivation or interest in learning over time.

Good educators, regardless of their specific background or philosophy of education, consider a child's temperament, maturity, level of ability, cultural background, and interests. They are responsive to children and are creative in motivating children to learn. The educational environment and materials characteristic of a good Montessori program foster initiative, curiosity and self-motivated learning in children and support the efforts of good teachers. The Montessori method works to help teachers to respond in an encouraging, positive way to a child's individual talents and needs. Since children find the Montessori materials naturally interesting, less time is spent on motivating children to "work" and more time is spent on learning itself. The method also allows the teacher to spend more one-on-one time with each child.

The final goal of any educational system is to produce competent, productive, and responsible adults. What does a child need in order to become such an individual? They need more than factual information. They need a warm and caring social network of both peers and adults; they need to have many more successes than failures; they need to have some mistakes that do not cause pain but promote persistence and renewed effort. All these elements are fostered in a Montessori classroom.

Next issue, more specific information about Montessori education: how it is the same and how it is different from other methods; myths and realities; how you can support a Montessori program at Garden Oaks Elementary (and why you would want to even if you do not have a child to enroll in the program).

Market Day

Market Day is a service the Garden Oaks Elementary PTA provides to our parents and community. This co-op has been in operation since 1973 and has grown to include hundreds of schools just like ours. As a participating Market Day school, each month we will be able to purchase products like Tyson Chicken, Yoplait Yogurt, Stouffer's Entrees, Quaker Granola Bars, and many more items at a very competitive price.

In addition to being able to purchase quality, every day products at a reasonable price, Garden Oaks Elementary will be earning at least 10% of the wholesale value of the foods we purchase. And, we earn this money without door to door sales by our kids, without purchasing products we wouldn't ordinarily purchase, and with the knowledge that all product quality is unconditionally guaranteed.

We have a lot of confidence that this co-op will not only benefit us as consumers, but also benefit the many programs that the Garden Oaks Elementary PTA supports. Please give Market Day a try!

Order forms are available in the school office each month and at the civic club meetings. Our next market Day Sale is on September 17. We hope to see you there.
