Welcoming New Students for the 2023-2024 school year now!

Amanda Sebba, GOMM Principal

Garden Oaks Montessori Magnet (GOMM) is gearing up for next year! If you are zoned to Garden Oaks, we are pre-registering students now for the 2023-2024 school year. Last week, GOMM hosted "office hours" for pre-registration. However, if you missed our office hours, it's not too late to register! Just call the front office at 713-696-2930, or visit our website (<https://www.houstonisd.org/gardenoaks>) for information about what documents you will need to bring with you to register your child. We look forward to welcoming you!

Wanting to learn more about your neighborhood school? GOMM is proud to offer Montessori education on our beautiful campus, where we focus on nature and environmental sciences. While playing at the Spark Park or walking by the school, our neighbors may have noticed our chicken coop, multiple vegetable beds, butterfly garden, and pocket prairie, all of which provide GOMM students opportunities to engage in hands-on learning. You may also have noticed our pond when walking on Sue Barnett. In collaboration with our highly-committed Parent Teacher Organization, GOMM is revitalizing our pond this year so that we have a true outdoor classroom next year! This transformed spaced will include outdoor learning stations, sustainable wind and solar energy as well as water reserves, and much more.

For those unfamiliar with the Montessori approach to education, Montessori is a child-centered educational approach, involving specially-designed materials coupled with a great deal of student choice and independence. Students at GOMM in grades as early as PreK 3 through 8th grade learn to become self-motivated, peaceful, and respectful of themselves, their peers, and their environment. Developed by Dr. Maria Montessori in the early 20th century, the Montessori approach aims to cultivate a child's natural curiosity and love of learning through a carefully designed curriculum and a supportive, nurturing environment.

One of the key benefits of Montessori education is its focus on individualized learning. GOMM's hard working teachers develop learning plans that are individualized to each student's education needs. They work with students to foster and encourage their individual interests and are given the ability to explore and discover their passions. This approach fosters a sense of autonomy and self-confidence, as children become active participants in their own education. An important aspect of Montessori is its emphasis on hands-on learning. Students at GOMM engage with the world around them through a variety of activities and experiences, from practical life skills like food-preparation and sorting, to working with manipulatives that help them master complex math and language arts concepts.

Overall, Montessori education provides students with a unique and rewarding learning experience that can help them develop the skills and knowledge they need to thrive long term. In fact, a recent study of adults who received Montessori education for at least two childhood years reported increased well-being compared to those who only ever attended traditional school. A recent study (Lillard, et al., 2021) with more than 1900 adults found that those with a history of Montessori education reported greater general well-being, engagement, social trust and self-confidence! These results held true even after considering different factors such as socioeconomic, race, gender, and public/private school status. Researchers also found that with each additional year of Montessori childhood education, adults reported a coinciding increase in their well-being scores.

At GOMM we are proud to offer our students the opportunity to receive up to 11 years of Montessori education. I encourage you to visit our website for video samples and photos of GOMM Montessori lessons and educational events. We are honored to provide a Montessori education, with a focus on environmental sciences, right here in Garden Oaks, and look forward to welcoming you to our amazing campus!

IMPORTANT ASSISTANCE FOR OUR GARDEN OAKS PATROL DEPUTY

Garden Oaks Patrol Deputy Jessica Clark's preemie daughter, Ruby, born in November, has been in Memorial Hermann Children's Neonatal ICU since birth. Ruby has had multiple surgeries, and more are on the horizon. Matt Schoelles, Ruby's father, is currently on Family Leave which expires in May: Matt is a Federal Border Patrol agent stationed in Arizona.

Their compassionate family transfer requests for Dad to transfer to a closer BP Patrol sector have been denied, citing Dad is not in the "same household". Now is the time for ground roots support, as attempts on their own have failed.

Any assistance you can give by calling and/or writing government representatives including US Congress people & Senators, as well as State representatives, could help.

Mickey's Minute

Mickey Morales

At the time of last month's posting, my mother's doctor said she wasn't expected to live past the first of the month. Well, here I sit on April 14th and she's still with us. Maybe I should have asked which month he was referring to. Or perhaps my mom is made out of different material than normal humans, I hope that I inherited some of those genes. I'm not in a hurry for her to leave this world, but this process may take a little longer than the doctor said.

On a brighter note, spring has sprung, and our world is in full bloom. The egg producers (the hens) are in full production. Farmer Cathy is now allowing y'all to purchase more the two dozen eggs at a time, and since they are much fresher than the ones in the store, they'll keep just fine in the fridge. It's always been a paradox that the demand for eggs is always highest when production is low and lowest when production is at its peak. In other farm news, there are still some winter veggies that are doing quite well: rainbow chard, dinosaur kale, and a few others, along with the beginning of berries, tomatoes, cucumbers, and okra down the way.

Sophia has been a busy little bee, cranking out lots of tasty baked goods week after week along with her delicious granola blends. I've been taking advantage of the bounty from the farm and making two to four quiches each week. I'll soon bring back my Mickey's pint size pantry with items like lemon and garlic hummus along with the roasted red pepper version. I'm also thinking about lighter soups, like chicken tortilla, gazpacho, cool cucumber dill, and creamy tomato basil. That's it for now. Be sure and come by your neighborhood market each and every Saturday and say howdy.

As always, "Come soon, come often, and enjoy this beautiful weather."

GOKids had a great moms' night out at the end of April hosted by Frankie + Flora. It was fun to meet other moms in the neighborhood.

In May, GOKids will have their most anticipated event of the year: family portraits. Each family will receive 3-4 professional photographs of their family. We would like to thank Frankie + Flora for the beautiful backdrop, Spa 146 by Dr. Theresa Haring, and Kate Mejia Photography for making this event possible.

Cub Scouts from the Bear Den (3rd graders) at St. Rose of Lima Pack 40 helped bag leaves along the Spark Park. Leaf removal is an annual necessity if street flooding is to be avoided in front and along the north side of GOMM. The den moved a small mountain of leaves in a very short amount of time.

The scouts also helped weed and clean up the Pocket Prairie in front of GOMM, and it's in full bloom! Come on by to check out the blooms, bees, and butterflies!

Garden Oaks Civic Club Minutes

Beth Wiedower Jackson, Secretary

Tuesday, April 4, 2023 at Great Heights Brewing

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 pm. President Tonya Knauth reminded all about the upcoming Wakefield Shuffle, a new annual fundraiser benefitting the Constable Program. It will be held on April 16th from 3:00 - 5:30 pm. Advanced tickets are $15, and $20 on the day of the event. Tonya also reminded all about the North Shepherd Business Alliance's clean-up day, scheduled for Saturday, April 29th. Pam Parks is the point person. Come out and help spruce up North Shepherd at the entrance to Garden Oaks.

The agenda then moved to the Community Input Workshop. Beth Jackson gave a brief recap of the Civic Club's rebranding interests and introduced the facilitator, Alan Krathaus, of Core Design Studio here in Houston. Alan launched the evening's workshop with an overview of his firm's work and the impact of creating a collective identity and brand on other communities.

Alan then facilitated an engaging and robust discussion about the characteristics and qualities that make Garden

Oaks unique, as well as the challenges and changes happening. Attendees were vocal and forthcoming in their feedback and input.

The Core Design Studio team will take the feedback received and begin to develop a framework for a refreshed community identity and brand for Garden Oaks and GOCC.

The intent of this work is increased engagement among neighbors and with GOCC. To voice your opinions and share input, visit <https://www.gardenoaks.org/gocc/> for the Community Input Workshop survey (also printed in this newsletter). # Mini Splits - Get Comfortable One Room at a Time Part Two

Mitch Weigand

Controlling indoor air comfort with mini splits is easy. They come with a remote control to achieve the desired temperature with just the touch of a button. Select the mode of operation between cool, heat or auto. Auto mode will automatically adjust if you need cooling or heating in order to maintain a set temperature. Best of all, the control is right there in the room. You don't need to go elsewhere to adjust your central A/C's wall thermostat.

The mini split's outdoor compressor automatically changes its speed to match the cooling and heating demands in the room. This is accomplished very efficiently using minimal energy. This differs from a conventional A/C system which starts and stops repetitively, causing temperature fluctuations and wasted energy.

Filtration makes for cleaner, healthier air

The air quality inside your home is often worse than the outside. Mini splits use a multi-stage filtration system to help remove airborne contaminants such as pollen, pet dander, viruses and bacteria. Some systems even include a deodorizing filter to reduce unpleasant odors as well.

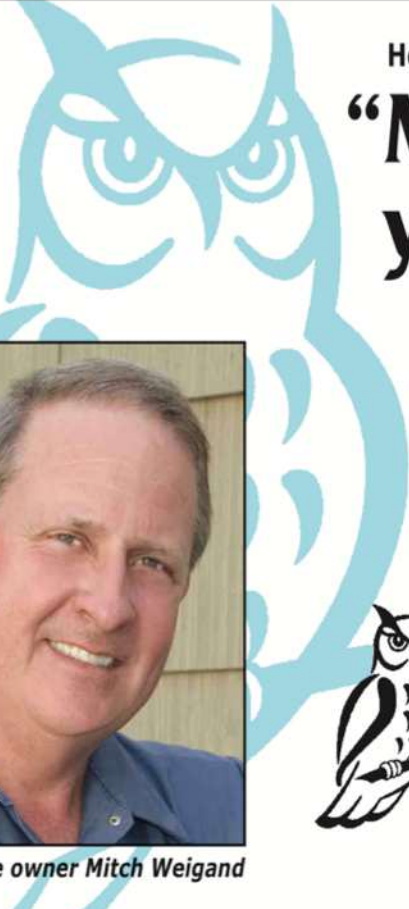

Although the filtration system is sophisticated, it's easy to clean and maintain. Every 3 months, simply wash the screens off, allow them to dry completely, and then slide them back into the unit. With regular cleaning, these filters can last up to 10 years. Then every 2 years, have your entire mini split cleaned thoroughly by your A/C technician.

In less than a day, you're good to go

One of the best things about mini splits is their ease of installation. It can usually be done in about four to five hours, and since there's little or no duct work involved, you won't have to put up with a messy house or costly remodeling expenses. A typical mini split costs around $3,500 installed.

The indoor air handler mounts onto the wall, and a pair of refrigerant lines plus the control wiring connect it to the outdoor condenser through a 3" opening in the wall. The outdoor unit is quite small and can be easily hidden by a few strategically placed shrubs.
