Garden Oaks Civic Club, 2024 Edition

M'lissa Dilley, Section 4 resident

Spring is in the air, and there's a buzz of activity at the Garden Oaks Civic Club (GOCC)! GOCC is excited to share some key updates and initiatives aimed at fostering community spirit and engagement within our Garden Oaks neighborhood.

Branding Refresh

We're thrilled to announce a fresh, new look for the GOCC! In collaboration with Core Design Studio, based in the Heights, we're rolling out a logo rebranding initiative. This effort, which began under the guidance of our former civic club president, Tonya Knauth, is concluding with the leadership of our current president, Mike Stephens. It's a testament to the collective efforts of our community and executive committee.

Keep an eye out for the updated logos gracing the pages of your Garden Oaks Gazette and the GOCC website. Over the course of the year, we'll also be updating the 10 neighborhood signs to reflect our new brand identity, with bids for the project currently underway.

Community Engagement through Social Events

- The All-Neighborhood Garage Sale: Mark your calendars for April 13th & 14th. This will be the perfect opportunity for some spring cleaning and a way to discover treasures within our community.
- The Wakefield Shuffle on April 21st: A fun-filled day supporting our Constable program and local businesses that back our community.
- The Garden Oaks Street Festival: Early planning is in motion for this fall event aimed at raising funds for our Constable Program. Stay tuned for more details and how to get involved.

Our Mission

The heart of the GOCC lies in its volunteer-driven efforts to enhance the civic and social welfare of Garden Oaks. Our mission is to promote neighborhood unity and preserve the residential character of our area, independent of the property owners' association and without deed enforcement authority.

Our committees are dedicated to various facets of community improvement, including Beautification, Constable Patrol, the Gazette, Membership, Social events, and our Website. These efforts are all geared toward making Garden Oaks an even better place to live.

Join Us

Our monthly in-person meetings are held on the first Tuesday of every month at 7 pm, generously hosted at Great Heights Brewing's private room at 938 Wakefield. We're always on the lookout for volunteers to join our committees or assist with ongoing projects. If you're interested in contributing to your neighborhood, meeting fellow residents, and/or making a difference, we'd love to hear from you! Stay connected with us on social media and our website for the latest events and updates:

GOMM Pancake Breakfast

On Saturday, April 6th, join your neighbors and friends for a pancake breakfast, courtesy of your local neighborhood school, Garden Oaks Montessori Magnet (GOMM)! GOMM is so excited to bring this annual tradition back to our community, and hope to see you there for food, fun and festivities!

Mickey's Minute

Mickey Morales

I'm trying not to make this sound like an April Fool's joke, but it appears we've found a solution to our desire to move indoors and avoid the vagaries of dealing with the ever-changing weather on the Texas Gulf coast. I'm not quite ready to divulge the location because I haven't had time to nail down all the details while working at the rodeo, but it looks promising. The only problem I foresee is a lack of street exposure, although we have a hardcore band of followers who will find us no matter where we are. The key to this move is attracting new patrons and vendors to make it economically viable.

In regular market news, Austin Potts and his wife Taylor have been blessed with a new baby boy and should be back at the market by the time you read this. Sophia is closing in on her final year of high school and has been touring prospective schools to further her education.

Farmer Cathy has begun the spring and summer planting as she recovers from this past winter's troubles. I, on the other hand, have made it past the previously mentioned annual rodeo run, which should give me time to concentrate on our next move.

All in all, the future looks bright for The Farmstand, and it is our hope to not endure the entire summer outdoors again this year. But be that as it may, we will endure whatever comes our way until we achieve our ends.

As always, "Come soon, come often and keep on your Saturday morning schedule."

A History of the Caesar Salad and Where to Enjoy One in the Neighborhood

Kala Dunn, Garden Oaks resident

Did you know that the Caesar Salad was invented in Tijuana, Mexico? The “Caesar” responsible for this crisp and savory creation was Caesar Cardini, an Italian chef who owned a restaurant in Tijuana and created this salad in the 1920s to please an unexpected influx of American customers in his restaurant using the supplies he had on hand. And this legendary salad creator has a local connection; some of his descendants still live in the Houston area.

The classic Caesar salad, as designed by Chef Cardini, contains eleven ingredients: grated parmesan cheese, Worcestershire sauce, fresh lime juice, egg, toasted baguette for croutons, anchovy paste, garlic, olive oil, salt, black pepper, and of course, romaine lettuce.

Garden Oaks and the surrounding area offer many choices if you're in the mood for a Caesar salad. The tableside Caesar salad at Cavatore Italian Restaurant on Ella Boulevard is a local legend, and many longtime residents have experienced Cavatore's old school presentation, in which a server rolls out a cart and prepares the salad right in the dining room. Plonk! Bistro and Wine Cellar on West 43rd Street serves their version of a Caesar during the spring, when baby romaine is available from organic grower Animal Farm, which is located just outside of town in Cat Spring, Texas. Plonk! owner Scott Miller learned the original method for making a Caesar salad from the Cardini family, and Plonk! puts its own spin on the classic preparation with a 63-degree sous vide egg and whole leaves of locally grown baby romaine. This classic salad was paired with a Spanish white wine during Plonk!'s recent three-week celebration of Spain.

Whether you choose one of the many delicious Caesar salad options from our local neighborhood restaurants or make one yourself from the traditional eleven ingredients, spring is the perfect time to enjoy this classic salad!

Pollinators in the Park Event

Chavonne Slovak, Garden Club

Sunday April 14, 2024

12:00 PM – 2:00 PM

Art Park - 43rd and Sue Barnett

Stop by the Art Park at 43rd and Sue Barnett between 12 and 2 PM on Sunday April 14 to explore the fascinating world of pollinators and learn about the role they play in the environment and the food we eat. The Sunday event is hosted by the Garden Oaks Garden Club and is kid-friendly! Attendees can participate in a scavenger hunt, collect pollinator trading cards, and see close-up demonstrations of a few of these essential insects.

We will be joined by special guest, Lauren Simpson. Lauren teaches law at the University of Houston by day, but her other passion is pollinators. Over the past 10 years she has transformed her yard into a certified wildlife and butterfly habitat that she named St. Julians Crossing. This was the beginning of her mission to educate and conserve pollinators and the wildscapes that support them. On her web site <http://www.stjulianscrossing.com/> Lauren shares some of her many discoveries found in her own Oak Forest yard.

The event will feature a Pollinator show and tell, guided expeditions for young naturalists, and other enlightening events in the spectacular wildflower setting of the Art Park. Pick up a packet of native seeds and plants that will be distributed, clear a small space in your yard, and take advantage of the useful tips on the St. Julians' website to create your own pollinator paradise.

We hope to see you there.

Note: The Art Park flower beds and wildflowers are maintained by Garden Oaks Garden Club members Shawn and Bill Spear.

Deepak Khosla, GOCC Secretary

Tuesday, March 5, 2024 @ Great Heights Brewing

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 pm by Vice President Paul Vincent.

The main presentation of the meeting, co-hosted by Garden Club Garden Club, was kicked off by Garden Club president Chris Lindsay.

The program introduction was by Ranger, a Stewardship & Outreach Specialist of the Coastal Prairie Conservancy (CPC). More details can be found at their website <https://www.coastalprairieconservancy.org/>.

The second part of the presentation was by Jonathan Williams, whose company OJWLA specializes in architecting sustainable landscapes. He gave examples of some beautiful pocket prairie projects and how we could develop one in our own backyards.

There was a reminder of the Pollinators at the Art Park event April 14, 12-2PM.

Treasurer Brian Rabe then summarized the February Treasurer's report.

A motion to accept the minutes from the February 2024 meeting was made, seconded, and approved.

Understanding Air Filters

Mitch Weigand

Air filters come in three categories: (1) the type made with paper or fibrous material, (2) the electrostatic kind and (3) the electronic filters.

(1) Paper/fibrous material air filters

These are the filters that are most familiar, constructed of heavyweight paper with fiberglass interiors and found at big box hardware stores. On the low end they cost about $1.00 each, and are only good for collecting large particles such as pet hair.

The mid-range ones cost around $3.00 apiece. Some have loose - not tight - pleating - and are great at collecting a variety of contaminants including dust, pollen, spores, pet hair and dander, etc. These are the ones I recommend.

The most expensive is not always the best. There are some fibrous filters on the market which have thick, very tightly pleated media and cost about $17.00 each. Stay away from these filters! Proper air flow is absolutely essential for your A/C system. Thick media restricts air flow which can cause all sorts of problems: diminished efficiency, higher utility bills and shortened compressor lifespan.

(2) Electrostatic air filters

These are commonly found in both free-standing room units or in ones incorporated within a central air conditioning system. They are one-inch thick, washable air filters. Yes, you can wash them but they will never become completely clean of debris. I do not recommend these either.

(3) Electronic air filters

In electronic filtering, the particles receive a physical charge and are removed by being attracted to the opposite charge within a contained system. The collected dust and particles must still be removed, and some designs include canisters which are emptied and cleaned. This can be done when your service technician performs Spring and Fall A/C check-ups.
